tread all for love of you and me. me.

WHEN YOU THINK WHAT YOU WERE TOLD

does it take your breath away—how the Saviour of the world once a tiny infant lay?
 Where the sheep and donkey fed our Redeemer we can see born this human path to tread
 all for love of you and me.

2 Have you heard God's angels sing
 to the shepherds in the night, and the news they came to bring
 from the glorious realms of light?
 For a gift of greater worth never was or yet could be—grace to sinners, peace on earth
 all for love of you and me.

3 When our days are filled with pain,
 when dark clouds obscure the road,
 when we long for joy again—
 let us turn our thoughts to God:
 how his only Son was given on a cross to set us free; Christ becomes the way to heaven
 all for love of you and me!
